WORKSHOP & CONFERENCE LEAD

PROF. ALAN MALEY

Internationally known as a writer and teacher of English, Prof. Alan Maley has provided a very unique, and at times, a very unconventional approach to teaching English in the classroom. Highly regarded for his notable contributions in the field of TESL for over 50 years, he has published over 40 books and numerous articles.

EFL-U, HYDERABAD

The English and Foreign Languages University is unique in that it is the only university in South Asia which is dedicated to the study of languages and humanities. Its mission is to conduct advanced training and research in English and Foreign Languages in the fields of Teacher Education, Literature and Philosophy, Language Sciences, Communication, Interdisciplinary Studies, and Cultural Studies; it has earned a reputation nationally and globally for excellence in teaching and research.

DEPARTMENT

The Materials Development, Testing and Evaluation Department, set up in 1963, is one of the oldest academic divisions of the University. It has emerged as a premier symbol of the University's success in strengthening the teaching of English in India. Its singular achievement has been the establishing of materials development and testing as significant areas of specialization in English language studies in the country. Its teaching materials have been widely used by national bodies like NCERT, CBSE, etc.
