

Course Title	Translation And Electronic Media – I (Open for all M.A. Students including Cafeteria and Specialized Courses)
Course Code	TS 121
Semester	Semester I and III
Time Table Slot:	Tuesday and Thursday : 9am -11 am Friday 12 -1pm
No. of Credits	5
Name of Faculty Member(s)	Dr. K. Kokila
Course Description: 150/200 words	The age of Globalization and Information Technology has not only converted the whole world into a Global Village but has also brought Translation, generally seen as the 'bridge across cultures' to the forefront. No area/field in the present world is untouched by translation. Developments in technology have been bringing in new modes of Audio-Visual communication right from television to the latest Smart phones, I-phones, Tabs etc. The number of Apps ranging from those related to business, tours and travels, entertainment, education, religion, to matrimony and games, have all opened up a new vista of opportunities which involve different forms of Translation – both traditional Inter/Intra lingual as well as new Inter-Semiotic Translation like Dubbing, Subtitling, Remakes and Adaptations used for translating Advertisements, TV Series and Films etc. The present course aims to familiarise the students with both theoretical as well as practical aspects of translation practices mentioned above. The practical sessions will enable them to study various Audio-Visual forms of translation being used in different Electronic devices. This would not only help in developing their translation skills and but also improve their future job prospects.
Evaluation Scheme	Internal Assessment: 40% End Semester Exam:60%

Note: Classes will be held in Room no. 12, Distance Education Building
For any queries/information - Contact mobile number: 9441119502