

NAAC 'A' Grade for EFLU

The EFL University, under the accomplished leadership of Prof. Sunaina Singh, Vice Chancellor, has been awarded the 'A' grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).

In the year 2000, erstwhile CIEFL was given a Five star grading for the first time when it was a deemed university. After 16 years, in the second cycle EFLU has now been awarded this meritorious ranking.

“This is a truly remarkable achievement for EFLU. This commendable rating by NAAC reinforces our commitment towards quality and excellence. The 'A' Grade is the culmination of efforts of our both retired and current faculty, students, alumni and staff, as it reflects the dedication and commitment of EFLU in taking up this ongoing exemplary journey towards achieving preeminence.” said Prof. Sunaina Singh, Vice Chancellor, EFLU.
