

The Placement Cell

The Placement Cell makes available placement opportunities for the final semester students of different programmes in our university. It facilitates meeting between the recruiting agencies and our students.

How we work

The Placement Cell

- a. contacts the Human Resource Development personnel in various educational organizations and industry and invites them to our university for placement drives.
- b. welcomes those organizations who express interest on their own to hold placement drives in our university.
- c. informs participants about the placement events, and,
- d. organizes and coordinates placement events.

In addition, the Placement Cell organizes some lectures/workshops to prepare the participants for the placement activities. These sessions help the participants in areas such as writing an effective CV, answering questions in the interview and taking part in discussions.
