Sir

The English and Foreign Languages University submits a rejoinder objecting to your article "EFLU guest lecturer convicted for molestation" that appeared today, July 9, 2015.

Four years ago Mr Rajat Kumar Mohanty was appointed a guest faculty at the University. He was relieved of his duties immediately after the complaint was lodged, i.e., in December 2011. Calling him an "EFLU guest lecturer" as you have, both in the title and the text, at this time, is misleading.

You must be aware that at a time when we are about to start our new academic year, an article like this that is damaging to our university's reputation could cause concern among parents and students. Therefore, we insist you release this rejoinder immediately.

Please contact the undersigned for any further clarifications regarding this matter.
