NOTICE

It is reported that some fake notices/ advertisements are being circulated in the name of the EFL University on the social media handles and other available networking means through a phishing activity done by some cyber miscreants to defraud the public to pay fee through a spurious QR code for admission/s to postgraduate and part time programmes of the University.

Any notice/ advertisement for admission to the programmes of the University will be posted only on the official website of the University, www.efluniversity.ac.in. Candidates interested to get admission to any of the programmes shall visit the website of University only for any updates, which has already been put in the notice of all.

It is brought to the notice of all the concerned that the notice/s/ advertisement/s, which are in circulation, other than those posted on the University's website, are false. The University will not take any responsibility nor any legal or such other claim lie against the University for any of the payment/s made by the candidate/s, who gave credence to such fake notices/advertisement/s for admission into the programmes of the University.
