No. EFLU/Hostels/F.15/2020/420

27 November 2020

CIRCULAR

Sub: Modification of the Circular - Permission for Indian students to collect their belongings from the Hostels—Reg

Ref: Circular No. No. EFLU/Hostels/F.15/2020, dated 4 November 2020

In partial modification of the Circular cited, and as per the resolution of the Standing Council of the Academic Council, the University hereby informs the Indian students who have completed their courses/programmes in July 2020 to collect their belongings from their respective Hostels. Intermediate-semester students are given the option of collecting their belongings from their rooms.

Students who wish to collect their belongings are required to intimate their travel plans through the email ids of the respective Hostels. They are advised to plan for their travel only upon receiving a confirmation email from the respective Hostel of the University.

Students are to note that the University will not provide any accommodation or mess facility due to the prevailing COVID-19 pandemic situation. In case students are not able to come to the University to collect their belongings, due to unavoidable circumstances, they may authorize their representatives, in writing, to do so.
