A. Part I programme.

2. The deadline for submission of the first 2 assignments in each course is 30 June 2019. By this deadline you have to submit 8 assignments (2 assignments x 4 courses = 8 assignments).

The deadline for submission of the remaining assignments in each course is 31 October 2019. By this deadline you have to submit the remaining 8 assignments (2 assignments x 4 courses = 8 assignments).

3. The 8 to 10 day contact-cum-examination programme for Part I is likely to be held in February 2020 (The exact dates will be communicated to you when you are invited to the contact-cum-examination programme, after you have submitted the assignments by the deadlines given above). During this contact-cum-examination programme, contact sessions (for which attendance is optional) will be held during the first 4 to 6 days and the examinations (for which attendance is compulsory) will be held on the last four days.

4. Eligibility to attend the contact-cum-examination programme: To be eligible to attend this contact-cum-examination programme, which is likely to be held in February 2020, you must submit the assignments by the deadlines given above. That is, you must submit the first 2 assignments in each course so as to reach us on or before 30 June 2019 and you must submit the remaining assignments in each course so as to reach us on or before 31 October 2019. You must meet both the deadlines. If you do not meet the first deadline, you will not be invited to the contact-cum examination programme even if you submit all the 16 assignments by 31 October 2019. Please note that these deadlines will not be extended for any reason. No correspondence will be entertained in this regard.

5. Contact-cum-Examination Programme Centre

The contact-cum-examination programme will be held only at one centre: The EFL University, Hyderabad.

6. Period of enrolment: Registration is valid for two years (2019-21)

The normal period of study of Part I of the MA programme (including contact sessions and examinations) is one year (2019-20). If for some reason you are unable to meet the deadlines and complete Part I of the programme within 2019-20, you will be permitted to stay on the rolls for another year (2020-21) to complete MA Part I. In addition, you will be given a last chance to be on rolls for one more year (to take the examination in 2022) by re-registering on a payment of 50% of the programme fee, excluding the postal charges, but you will have to meet the assignment deadlines in the year 2021. Please note that if you fail to complete MA Part I within these 3 years (including the period of re-registration) you will be out of rolls in 2022.

7. Change of address/email ID/phone number

Please let us know whenever there is any change of address/email ID/ phone number. Please also send us your email address along with your request for change of address/ email ID/phone number so that we can immediately inform you that we have effected the change in our records.

8. Some general guidelines

Please go through Your Handbook for the M.A. Programme and the emails sent by us from time to time and follow the instructions carefully. We would in particular request you to do the following:

- a. Write your roll number, name, address, assignment number and the name of the course on the cover sheet for each assignment separately.
- b. Check whether you have written your complete roll number correctly.
- c. Write the answer for different courses and different assignments on separate sheets. Pin each assignment separately with a separate cover sheet. We have sent you one sample cover sheet. You will need to photocopy 16 cover sheets – one for each assignment. Each individual assignment must have a cover sheet. If you send an assignment without a cover sheet, we will be constrained to return it. When you are sending in assignments, ensure that all assignments pertaining to a course are kept together in serial order. Also please send us an email while sending assignments (with all the details of the assignments sent) if you wish to receive an acknowledgment.
- d. Do not send Points for Clarification along with the assignments. Send them separately. Please write your roll no. every time you need to clarify anything.
- e. Send assignments by Registered Post/ Speed Post, or through a reliable courier, even though it is a little expensive. This will avoid any chances of assignments getting lost. We accept both handwritten and typed assignments. But online/ email submission of assignments is not allowed.

If possible, keep a photocopy of the assignments with you. Also, keep the receipt of the speed post/registered post, etc., so that you could track it in case they are lost.

We have repeated here some of the information given in Your Hand Book for the M.A. Programme. Other information that is not covered by the handbook will be conveyed to you through circulars from time to time. If you have any queries, or if you wish to offer any suggestions, please feel free to write to us. You should always address your communications to:
