Rules of discipline and proper conduct of students

The rules listed hereunder shall apply to all students of the University (including students of part-time courses) under Article 29 of the Statute of the EFL University. Any breach of discipline and conduct by a student inside or outside the EFL University Campus shall fall under the purview of these rules.

Categories of misconduct and indiscipline:

- All acts of violence and forms of coercion such as gherao, dharnas, sit-ins which disrupt the normal academic and administrative functioning of the University
- Sexual harassment
- Committing forgery, defacing/destroying books/journals of the library
- Furnishing false certificates or false information
- Street hazing or eve-teasing or disrespectful behaviour with a girl student
- Arousing communal, caste or regional feeling or disharmony among students
- Use of abusive, defamatory, derogatory language
- Pasting of posters of objectionable nature
- Unauthorized occupation of the hostel rooms
- Indulging in acts of gambling
- Use of the title of the University when distributing any document, other than for academic purposes, outside the University
- Consuming or possessing dangerous drugs
- Non-payment of fees and other dues including mess charges
- Ragging in any form
- Refusal to obey the directions of officers of the University staff
- Unauthorized collection of funds for any students programme
- Any other act which the Vice-Chancellor may deem to be an act of violation of discipline, or misconduct

Penal Measures

The Competent Authority may impose penal measures on any student found guilty of any of the acts of indiscipline or misconduct mentioned above.

Anti-Ragging Committee: Any form of ragging within the premises of the EFL University will be viewed seriously and dealt with swiftly and severely by the administration. Anti-ragging squads and an Anti-Ragging Committee will be empowered to take suomoto action upon receiving a complaint. As per the direction of the Supreme Court of India, if any incident of ragging comes to the notice of the authority, the student concerned shall be asked to explain and if his/her explanation is not found satisfactory, the authority would expel him from the University.

Anti-Sexual Harassment and Redressal Mechanism: The EFL University has evolved a policy against sexual harassment to create for women students on its Campuses a gender-just and secure environment (vide Ordinance No. 30, entitled Gender Sensitization Prevention and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of the English and Foreign Languages University). Every Campus of the EFL University has a Complaints Committee, with representatives from all sections of the University, to take care of the complaints of women students in this regard, with the names, addresses and phone numbers of the members displayed in all prominent places in the campus. The complaints are kept confidential and the Committee is empowered to recommend severe action(s) against the perpetrators. The Committee also takes upon itself the task of organizing various gender sensitization programmes. There is also an Appellate Committee to consider problems when the Complaints Committee's decisions are not found satisfactory.

Grievance Redressal Mechanism for all students: All grievances within the University will be resolved through discussions and negotiations and through a Grievance-Redressal mechanism. The following are some of them:

- Grievances with regard to the hostels may be referred to the Provost/Warden concerned.
- Individual grievances may be referred to teachers in each department who will be appointed staff advisers.
- Group grievances may be resolved within the department
- Miscellaneous grievances with regard to Library/Finance/Sports will be resolved by the Committee concerned.
- Academic grievances of students: Students aggrieved on the grade awarded in a course may apply in a prescribed form along with a fee of Rs. 100/- for each course to the Head of the Department giving reasons for feeling aggrieved within one month of the notification of the results. A committee will examine the case and the grade awarded as a result of review will be final.

All grievances, except academic grievances, should be submitted to the appropriate body within reasonable time but not more than two weeks after the event at issue.

Hostel Accommodation (Hyderabad Campus)

EFL University is not a fully residential university; it does not promise accommodation to every student. The University has five hostels: three for Indian meant students, and two for international students. Subject to availability, hostel rooms are allotted, on a sharing basis, to students from outside the city, (Hyderabad), pursuing full-time courses at the University. Students provided such accommodation shall abide by the hostel rules and regulations.

Students are required to vacate their rooms during the winter vacation (December) and the summer vacation (May to July), so that guests of the University and participants of short-term courses can be accommodated on the Campus. They may also be asked to vacate the rooms when repairs and maintenance jobs need to be taken up.

Scholarships

The following scholarships/fellowships are available to eligible students:
