6. Selection Procedure

Admissions shall be made strictly on the basis of:

- CUET (UG)-2026 scores;
- Eligibility criteria prescribed by the University;
- Reservation policy;
- Candidate's order of preferences; and
- Availability of seats.

The list of candidates shortlisted for admission counselling shall be published on the University website.

Important Note: Candidates are advised to exercise utmost care while indicating the order of preferences for the programmes during the online application process. Admissions shall be made strictly on the basis of CUET (UG)-2026 merit, the candidate's order of preferences, applicable reservation policy, and the availability of seats. Once submitted, the order of preferences cannot be modified. During subsequent rounds of counselling, only upgradation to a higher preferred programme (as indicated by the candidate in the original application) shall be considered, subject to merit and availability of seats.

7. General Instructions

1. Candidates are advised to read the University Prospectus carefully before submitting the online application.
2. Applications submitted after the last date will not be considered.
3. The application fee once paid shall not be refunded under any circumstances.
4. Mere submission of an application does not confer any right to admission.
5. Admission is subject to verification of original certificates and fulfillment of all eligibility conditions prescribed by the University.
6. The University reserves the right to modify, cancel or amend any part of the admission process, if necessary.
7. Detailed instructions regarding document verification, fee payment, and confirmation of admission shall be communicated separately to the provisionally shortlisted candidates.
